

Craig Matthis was born in 1958 to Dell R. Matthis (deceased) and Karen R. Johnson Matthis in Helena, Montana.

He passed away peacefully at home with his family by his side after a long and difficult battle with MS.

Craig attended Grades 1 through 4 in Helena and grades 5 through 12 in Bozeman.

Upon completion of High School, he had several jobs in the valley until he was employed by Tele-Communications Inc. (TCI) where he worked for 19 years as a cable technician.

Craig married Robin Elizabeth Tate September 18, 1979 in Bozeman, MT. They later divorced. They have one daughter, Maria Lee Matthis.

Craig had many interests. He collected rocks, antiques, vintage cars and coins. He was a beautiful skier starting out early in the Buddy Werner program at Bridger Bowl.

Craig was an avid sportsman and loved Montana; particularly the Gallatin Valley and the Headwaters of the Missouri.

Craig is survived by his mother Karen R. Matthis of Bozeman, MT, his daughter Maria Lee Matthis and grandson Mason Craig Del Grande, also of Bozeman, sister Kay Suzanne Matthis, Spokane WA and brother, T. Scott Matthis of Plains, MT.

He was preceded in death by his father Dell R. Matthis, grandparents Elmer and Ruth Kenyon Johnson, and Frank and Rhena Matthis.

A memorial service will be held Wednesday, March 28th at 2:00 p.m. at Dokken Nelson Funeral Home. Memorials may be made to Heart of the Valley and Bozeman Deaconess Hospice.
