

Gay Nell Snowberger was born on February 7, 1957, to Charlotte and John Snowberger. Gay Nell loved and served God and was at peace with Him; she continually praised Jesus as her Savior. She was known by her generous heart and servant approach to life. Gay prayed daily for others. She liked attending Grace Bible Church, and joyfully gave to its ministries and those of Billy Graham.

Gay Nell loved to travel. She had a tremendous sense of humor. She was a talented artist who enjoyed drawing, painting, and making gifts for others. Gay Nell was gifted at sport fishing, often catching the biggest fish. She cherished animals, especially her two cats named Coco and Rascal. She enjoyed making tea, listening to music, and dining out. She collected dolls and stuffed animals. She loved caring for children, especially her nieces and nephews. She loved horses, and had been riding since her early youth. She participated in Eagle Mount programs, and in Special Olympics Montana games, winning a number of bronze, silver, and gold medals in equestrian events.

Gay Nell is survived by her parents, Charlotte and John Snowberger; her brother, John, and four sisters— Ann, René, Michele, and Yvette; by her sister-in-law, Sharon; by two brother-in-laws, Colby and Ivan; and by her nieces and nephews—John, Kyle, Sarah, Chester, Chloé, Hannah, Sterling, Isaiah, and Brönte.

Private family graveside service will take place in Sunset Hills Cemetery. A memorial service will be held at 1pm Thursday at Grace Bible Church. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests that donations be made to either Grace Bible Church (Gay Nell Snowberger Memorial Fund), 3625 South 19th Ave, Bozeman 59718 or to the Eagle Mount Equestrian Program (Gay Nell Snowberger Memorial Fund), 6901 Goldenstein Lane, Bozeman 59715.
