

Margaret Carol Jones Boobar passed away April 21, 2010, in Bozeman. She was born June 5, 1919, in Pueblo, CO, to Archie T. and Grace (Palmateer) Jones.

Margaret graduated from Central High School in Pueblo and attended Pueblo Junior College. She worked as a telephone operator before meeting her wartime sweetheart, Lieutenant (j.g.) Robert C. Boobar, during World War II. They married July 9, 1943, and raised a son and a daughter.

Margaret and Robert lived in Manhattan, KS, Missoula, MT, and various cities in California as Bob established his career as a veterinarian; they finally settled in Sacramento, where Margaret lived for 36 years.

Margaret was preceded in death by her husband in 1986 and her brother, Arthur T. Jones.

She is survived by her daughter, Carol (Robert) Sharrock of Bozeman; her son, Robert (Eileen) Boobar of Lincoln, CA; and her grandchildren, Katherine Sharrock of Somerville, MA, Julia Sharrock of Bozeman, Corey Boobar of Kings Beach, CA, and Todd Boobar of West Sacramento, CA.

Margaret enjoyed making a home for her family, reading, and gardening. She had a love of all animals, particularly cats. She will be remembered for her caring and spirited personality.

Memorials may be made in her name to the Gallatin Valley Rest Home Auxiliary Sensory Garden Fund c/o GRH 1221 Durston Rd. Bozeman, MT 59715 or the Heart of the Valley Animal Shelter, P.O. Box 11390 Bozeman, MT 59719.

