

James John (Jim) Dickerson died from health complications at home April 24, 2008. Jim was born to Eugene Dickerson, Jr. and Judith Boller Dickerson, at Billings, Montana, on February 27, 1960. The family lived in various Montana cities including Polson, Roundup, Whitefish, Willow Creek and Bozeman. Jim graduated from Bozeman High School in 1978, attended MSU in Ag-Business and graduated from Coleman College in San Marcos, CA, with a degree in Computer Electronics Technology.

Jim married Sonia Perkins on June 30, 1988, and they had two children, Christopher and Michelle Dickerson. Although their marriage ended, Jim was very proud of the commitment they made to co-parent their children. He was very active in their lives and was a patient, gentle and accepting father and always put his children first in his life.

Jim was a hard worker and held positions at Gallatin County Road Dept, Fire Supply & Service, Bare's Stove and Spa, and Automatic Door Company. He was an active member of Kirkwood Baptist Church where he served on various committees. He was an avid sportsman and enjoyed teaching both children to hunt and fish. He was a friend to many and would often go out of his way to help someone in need.

Jim was preceded in death by his parents and one brother who died in infancy. He is survived by his former wife and friend, his two children, two brothers Bob Dickerson and Bill Dickerson, aunts Peg Lindberg, Helen Clark, Ruth Eastman and Pearl Cortay, nieces and nephews, and many friends.
