

Alma E. Dugdale went home to be with her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, on Sunday, April 26, 2004. She fought a long and courageous battle with Alzheimers disease.

She was born in Eureka, S. D. on August 26, 1915 of Emmanuel Stickel and Maria Litz Stickel. She was born again into God's family by her faith and belief in Jesus Christ and His assurance of the gift of eternal life.

She was a resident of Bozeman, MT for almost sixty years, and a long standing member of the First Presbyterian Church serving as a Deacon, cooking Seder dinner many years, and always volunteering when needed.

She and her husband, Tom Dugdale, who predeceased her in 1971, operated a restaurant on Main Street for many years known as Doug's Grill, and later as the New Grill, now known as The Bozeman Bistro. They loved the Gallatin Valley and spent much of their time camping and fishing the many lakes in addition to the Gallatin and Hyalite Canyons. Another passion was playing bridge with her many friends, and traveling all over the world. She also served as Treasurer of the Republican Club for many years.

Alma is survived by her three daughters; Audrey (Doug) Mehlhaff of Green Valley, AZ, Marilyn (Tom) Maher of Green Valley, AZ and Estes Park, CO, and Janice (Roy) Weston of Green Valley, AZ and Boise, ID. She leaves behind her beloved nine grandchildren, nineteen great-grand children and five great-great-grand-children. Her three brothers; Edmund, Eugene, Emmanuel, and her sister, Annette Christenot, all of Bozeman, all preceded her in death.

You are invited to a viewing at the Dokken-Nelson Funeral Service on Monday, May 4 between the hours of 4 p.m. and 6 p.m. A private burial will be held Tuesday, May 5 at Sunset Hills Cemetery. Donations in her name may be made to the Alzheimer's Association.
