

Stephen K. Green passed away April 14, 2010 as a result of an avalanche, while doing what he loved, snowmobiling with friends in Buck Creek. Steve was born October 1, 1952 in Bozeman where he spent nearly all of his life. He attended Bozeman schools and graduated from Montana State University with a degree in Film and Photography in 1975.

Steve was a lifelong Bobcat fan and loved MSU football. When not in blue and gold he was dressed in green and gold for his beloved Packers.

In 1975, the stars aligned and Steve met his everlasting love Carol Aulik whom he shared life and love with from that moment on. They were blessed with two sons, Peter in 1986 and Chad in 1989.

Steve and Carol are well known in the Bozeman business community and established Scrubby's Car Wash in 1982 to present.

Steve was a Montana boy through and through. He loved the mountains and lakes of Montana and was an accomplished snow skier, water skier, hunter and snowmobiler. Steve was a special friend of Bill W.

He is survived by his wife, Carol; sons, Peter and Chad; his father and stepmother, L. Morrish and Donna Green of Livingston, MT; mother, Verna Green of Helena, MT; brother, John M. Green of Denver, CO; half brother, Matthew Green of California; and many special nieces and nephews.

Friends and relatives are invited to attend a viewing to be held Sunday, from 5:00 PM to 7:00 PM at Dokken Nelson Funeral Service at 113 S. Willson, Bozeman. Memorial services will be held at 2 p.m. Monday April 19, at Grace Bible Church, 3625 S. 19th in Bozeman.

Memorials may be made to The Gallatin Valley Snowmobile Association, care of Stockman Bank.
