

Susan Marie Owenhouse (43) died Monday April 13th after a battle with a rare auto-immune disease called primary sclerosis cholangitis.

Susan was born January 31, 1966 in Bozeman, Montana, and lived her entire life in Bozeman, a place she loved to call home. She graduated from Bozeman Senior High School in 1984 and then received her degree in Elementary Education from Montana State University in 1988.

From early childhood, she had a deep faith in Jesus Christ and impacted many lives for Him. Her passions in life were her faith, her family, her marriage, and her friends. She leaves a remarkable legacy of faith in her four children, and many others who crossed her path.

She married Jay Owenhouse on July 24, 1987 and had four children, John (18), Peter (17), Juliana (14), and Christina (5). While her main focus was on raising her children, she also partnered with Jay in creating his magic show, and also worked in her family's construction business, Clair W. Daines, Inc. She was a leader in Bible Study Fellowship and also involved in Young Life. Though we must continue to live by faith, we are comforted in knowing that Susan's faith has now become sight, as she is in heaven with her Savior, Jesus Christ.

There are many in the family remaining who are looking forward to joining Susan in heaven including the love of her life, Jay Owenhouse; her children; her parents Clair and Sharon Daines of Bozeman; Jay's parents Jim and Ella May Owenhouse of Bozeman; her brother and sister-in-law Steve and Cindy Daines of Bozeman, along with their children David, Annie, Michael, and Caroline; her sister and brother-in-law Christie and Rob Piacesi of Falls Church, VA, and their daughter Maria Christine; her sister-in-law and husband Mary Ann and Bob Noack of Lake Oswego, OR and their children Adam and Spencer; grandmothers Margaret Erickson of Issaquah, WA, and Marriet Daines of Billings, MT; along with many beloved aunts, uncles and cousins.
