

Amelia Renee Bunkers, 26, of Gallatin Gateway died peacefully surrounded by her family and friends on May 25, 2008. Renee "Nay Nay" was born March 30, 1982 in Bozeman. She grew up in Gallatin Gateway where she attended elementary school. She received her GED and graduated from the National Guard Montana Youth Challenge in 2000. Renee was the devoted and well-respected driver dispatch for Knife River UTL of Belgrade. She also waited tables part-time for the Holiday Inn of Bozeman.

Renee grew up playing with numerous cousins who were also her best friends. They would play, get into mischief and usually end up at Uncle Jay's or Aunt Wendy's. Renee was always on the go with her dog, Sport, doing what she wanted. Whether it was floating the canal, riding horses, climbing on the corrals, camping, licking salt blocks, playing in the hay shed, ice skating, sledding on hills or behind cars, and mostly just hanging out at Grandma and Grandpa's house.

Renee met Danial Leroy Bunkers in 2001. In December 2003, they had a little boy named Tyler. In August 2005, they were blessed with Jordan. Dan and Renee were married on May 6, 2006. Renee's greatest joys in life were being a loving mother and wife.

She was preceded in death by her son, Jordan Avery Bunkers; her husband, Danial Leroy Bunkers; paternal grandmother, Charlotte Bergquist, and uncle, Jerry Bergquist.

Renee is survived by her daughter, Danylle, one month; son, Tyler, four; mother, Maxine Daniel; father, Don (Karen) Bergquist; brothers, Ryan Daniel, and Will (Nicki) Shelton; nephews, Will Shelton, Jr. and Kaileb Williams; maternal grandparents, Willis and Norma Daniel; aunts, Sally (Michael) Barnes, Francie (Jerry) Hargrove; uncle, Jay (Linda) Daniel; aunts, Wendy Morgan, Terri Daniel, Deb Almer; step-sisters, Bonnie Jungmeyer, Michele (Jim) Andrews; cousins, Kayla and Allen Morgan, Rebecca, Willis, and Rita Daniel, Dawn (Jason) Rau, and Jennifer McGann; mother-in-law, Cindy Bunkers; and brother-in-law, Scott (Kristi) Bunkers.
