

Eldon John Bos, 69, passed away June 24, 2010 in Riverside, California. He was born January 5, 1941 in Bozeman, Montana, to John H. and Martha (Veltkamp) Bos.

Eldon grew up on a farm near Churchill. He graduated from Manhattan Christian High School. His college education was at Phoenix Junior College.

His employment was varied, first at Diamond Department Store, Phoenix, AZ; co-owner with brother, Gordon, of Southwest Testing and Inspection in Paramount, CA; Golden Marine, Long Beach, CA., and Joe's Bar, Lomita, CA.

After recovering from some illness and surgeries, he made his home at Don and Jean's. In 2004, he moved to his Country Village Apt. where he lived until five days before his death. For the last eight years, he was employed at 3-Way Thrift in Chino, CA, where he made many wonderful friends. He had been attending the CrossPoint Church in Chino for the past eight years.

He married Mary Flemming in November of 1968. They made their home in Long Beach. They later divorced, and Mary passed away in January of 1998.

He was preceded in death by parents, John and Martha Bos; two brothers, Clarence "Buck" and Gordon; and brother-in-law, Don Van Dyken.

Eldon is survived by brothers, James (Lois) Bos, Billings, MT; Ronald (Janice) Bos and David (Marilyn) Bos of Bozeman, MT; sisters, Jean Van Dyken, Ontario, CA; Helen (Duane) Kamps, Freeland, WA; Kathy (Carl) Wierda, Bozeman, MT; sisters-in-law, Betty Bos, Bozeman, MT, and Kathy Bos, Alta Loma, CA. Also surviving are uncles, aunts, many nephews and nieces, and caring friends.

Eldon will be remembered by his family and many, many friends. Because Jesus lived and died for our sins, and Eldon believed by grace that Jesus is Savior, he now lives with Him in eternity.

A Celebration of Eldon's life was held in Chino, California June 26. Graveside services and interment were held July 3rd in Churchill Cemetery, Manhattan, Montana.
