

Arthur (Art) "Butch" Cline, 55, was called away by our Lord on June 22, 2010.

He was born on Travis Air Force Base in California in March 11, 1955.

He grew up in McCall, Idaho as a small boy until his family moved to Montana in 1961, where he continued to live in the Gallatin Gateway, 4 Corners, and Belgrade area until his death.

He was an avid hunter and fisherman. He also loved to walk in his beloved Montana mountains, hunting elk antlers in the spring.

Art worked at many jobs during his lifetime including logging, old rigs, and construction.

He is preceded in death by Mary Cline, Mary Tondevold, his mother Mary, and his father, Jesse Cline.

He is survived by two sisters, Gretta Cline, Jessie Montgomery; four brothers, Jay Cline, Billy Cline, Norman Sigler, and Karl Tondevold.

Other survivors include, Darren Cline, Shawn Cline; four grandchildren, Zachary Cline, Scott Cline, Makayla Cline, and Kamellia Chamberlain. Also surviving are many other nephews, nieces, and family members who will miss "Uncle Butch."
