

Dr. Philip E. Buckley, 79, of Manhattan passed away Tuesday, July, 14, 2009, in Bozeman, Montana. Dr. Buckley was born on November 26, 1929, in Unadilla, New York, to Jay and Guila (Peck) Buckley. As a young man, he attended Otego Central School in Otego, New York. Dr. Buckley furthered

his education by attending Cornell University in Ithaca, New York; Fort Hays State College in Fort Hays, Kansas; and Texas A&M University in College Station, Texas, where he received his Ph.D. On October 21, 1950, Philip married Ethel March in Otego, New York and together they had three children. During his career as an Educator, he taught high school sciences in Ovid, New York; Sciences at Morrisville Ag, & Tech in Morrisville, New York; and later Natural Resource Sciences at the University of Minnesota in Crookston, Minnesota.

He was preceded in death by his son, Jay Buckley. He is survived by his wife of fifty-eight years, Ethel (March) Buckley; two sons, Wayne (Lois) Buckley and Kurt (Gale) Buckley; his daughter-in-law, Barbara Buckley; six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

A Memorial Service will be held at 11 a.m., Thursday, July, 30, 2009 at Manhattan Presbyterian Church in Manhattan, Montana.