

Robert "Bob" Neal Coniglio, 64, went to be with Jesus on Saturday, July 18, 2009, in Bozeman, MT.

Bob was born on October 21, 1944 in Amarillo, TX. He grew up in the Bay Area, and at the age of 20, while serving a tour in the Air Force during the Vietnam War, met Jacqueline Young, who became his wife of 43 years. Bob's love of life was felt by all who knew him. He was immensely devoted to his family, and took great joy in watching his three children marry and begin families of their own. He loved the game of soccer, and at one point or another coached each one of his children's teams, as well as high school teams in Boise Idaho, and a college team in Wellington NZ. He also loved to travel, garden and work on lowering his golf handicap. Always welcoming with a smile, Bob made friends wherever he went. Throughout his 44 years in the work force, Bob was a successful Purchasing Manager in Silicon Valley, Boise, ID, Bozeman, MT and Wellington, New Zealand.

Although we are so saddened by the loss of this special man, we take ultimate comfort in knowing that his faith has now become sight, and he lives eternally in heaven, glorifying Jesus...truly home.

Bob is survived by his loving wife Jackie; daughter Emily Coniglio Tellvik, and sons Bryan and Nicholas; four grandchildren; Tristan James, Eliza Lou, Charles and Abraham and an untold wealth of people who loved him. In lieu of flowers please send donations to Compassion International, Colorado Springs, CO 80997.

A Memorial Service will be held at 1 p.m. Thursday, July 23, 2009 at Grace Bible Church in Bozeman with a reception to follow at the church. In lieu of flowers, please send donations to Compassion International, Colorado Springs, CO. 80997.
