Jessie H. Edwards passed away Saturday, July 4, 2009 in Laurel, MT.

She was born December 5, 1921 to Charles & Lora (Bruffey) Beckman in Livingston, MT.

She graduated from Park County High School in 1941 and worked for three years at A.W. Miles Co. She also served as a clerk for J.C. Penney, Hennessey's, as well as in the food services at 4B's Café and Hole in the Wall. In 1971, she went to work for Edwards Clay Castle Ceramic Shop, where she worked for thirty years. In 1946, she married Herbert D. Edwards in Bozeman, Montana. They had two sons, Bruce Edwards, of Laurel, and Terry Edwards (deceased.)

Jessie enjoyed sewing, especially wedding dresses and drapes.

She is survived by her son; Bruce (Joan) Edwards of Laurel; three grand-children, Scott (Nicole) Edwards, Tony (Liz) Edwards, and Tammy (Greg) Kindt. Also surviving are four great-grandchildren; Dylan, Toby, Brody, and Hagen.

No services are planned at this time.
