

Lewis B. Cardwell, Jr., 59, of Belgrade, passed away September 22, 2010. He was born January 20, 1951 in Elmira, New York, to Lewis B. and Mary (Murray) Cardwell. He graduated from Horseheads High School in Horseheads, New York.

He coached amateur boxing in Bozeman for twenty years, and also played baseball for the New York Yankees Minor League. He would have been drafted to the Yankee's, but enlisted in the US Marine Corp where he served during the Viet Nam War. He enjoyed hunting, fishing, boxing, and building hot rods.

He was a loving caring father who loved his sons and friends very much.

He was preceded in death by his parents, and son, Mark William Cardwell.

Lewis is survived by his sons, Lewis B. Cardwell, III; Matthew J. Cardwell, Michael Lewis Cardwell, Toby J. Cardwell; grandsons, Austin Mark Cardwell and Adian Matthew Cardwell. Also surviving are his sister, Patricia Fox; his best hunting buddies, Les Lindaur, Shane Halstead, Justin Sabol, the Stotts family; and best friend, Barb Wallace.

Memorials may be made: c/o Lewis Cardwell, 8860 Bridger Canyon Rd.,
Bozeman, MT 59715.