

Marge Adkisson, 75, passed away at the Bearcreek Care Center in Bozeman, MT on September 28, 2010. She was born February 1, 1935 to Donald and Murva Dick in Berkley, CA. She grew up in Little Rock, AR and graduated from Central High School there. Marge attended the University of Colorado, transferred to the University of Wisconsin where she earned a B.A. and a M.S. in Library Science. She met and married Jerry Adkisson in Albuquerque NM in 1961. They lived in New Mexico, Minnesota, California, and Montana. She worked as a librarian at the University of ID, the University of NM, the MN State Legislature, and the Minnesota's Dakota County Public Library system where she was director of the Eagan branch at the time of her retirement in 2000.

Throughout her life, Marge made friends easily and loved talking with people. She loved outdoor activities, including sailing, skiing, birding, and gardening and had a deep concern for people in need. Marge is survived by her husband, Jerry of Bozeman; daughters, Kathy Marcinko and Karen Savino; brother, Donald Dick, of Boulder, CO; and grandchildren, Kelsey and Justin Marcinko, and Kira Savino. A private family service is planned. We will all miss her.
