

Linda Kay Kraft was born August 11, 1947 in Columbus, MT to Katherine M. (Zindler) and Earl W. Maher. She passed September 5, 2010. She married the love of her life Glen Kraft on October 23, 1963 in Bozeman, MT, spending her entire married life on a farm southwest of Bozeman.

Having had no children they spent their whole life with each other and babysat little ones of family and friends. She had two very special grand kids, Cass Lee and Nolan Stoltzfus.

Some of the activities she enjoyed included volunteering for over 20 years at the Montana Winter Fair. She was an active member of Mountain View Home Makers Association, volunteered many years at the Mountain View Nursing Home, volunteer fire fighter and local elections. Farming, bowling and fishing were a few of her favorite activities. She took up quilting in the later years, making several quilts, jackets and table runners which she enjoyed giving most away as gifts.

Linda tended beautiful gardens and flowers always canning and freezing large quantities of fruit, vegetables and juices for themselves and others. Linda was very creative making beautiful greeting cards for any and all occasions.

Linda loved traveling to places including Alaska, Arizona, Pennsylvania, Vegas for the NFR and Hawaii.

Linda is survived by her husband, Glen Kraft; sister Helen E. Chandler (Richard); brother, James E. Maher (Lee); sister, Donna M. Houghtaling; and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins. She was preceded in death by her parents Katherine and Earl Maher, all Aunts and Uncles.

Funeral services will be held Friday, September 10, 2010 at First Presbyterian Church at 2:00 p.m.
