

Cecil Mae Lewis, 86, died September 16, 2008 at Bozeman Deaconess Hospital. She was born May 13, 1922 and lived all her life in the Bozeman area. Her parents were John M. and Myrtle (Mitchell) Puckett. She was the youngest of seven children: Raymond Puckett, Max Puckett, Helen Blasic, Mildred Pasha, Ruth Benson, and Jean Kessler. She attended school in Bozeman. She then worked for Richardson's Candy Store and Restaurant and then married Jack B. Lewis on April 10, 1947 in Billings. They had two children, Richard Lewis and Connie Lewis.

Cecil was primarily a homemaker, wife and mother. She worked later for many years at the Bungalow Drug Store where she always warmly welcomed the people of Bozeman. She loved to swim, dance, and knit and in later years, to walk around her neighborhood.

Cecil is preceded in death by her beloved husband, Jack, who died in 2000 after 52 years of marriage. She was survived by her son and daughter in-law Richard and Margaret Gay Lewis of Milwaukie, Oregon, and her two grandsons, Nicholas Lewis of Milwaukie, Oregon and Taylor Lewis of Anchorage, Alaska, and her daughter, Connie Jean Lewis of Bozeman, Montana. She is also survived by numerous nieces and nephews.

A memorial service will be held on Friday, September 26, 2008 at 2:00 PM, at the Unity Church of Bozeman, 1919 Fairway Avenue, Bozeman.

The family asks that in lieu of flowers, donations be made in Cecil's name to the Bozeman Deaconess Hospice, 915 Highland Blvd., Bozeman, MT 59715.
