

Leo Craig Zahara, 46, passed away September 12, 2009 in Hyalite Canyon. Born March 28, 1963 to Leo Zahara and Donna Smith, Leo Craig lived the majority of his life in Belgrade and Bozeman Montana.

Leo Craig was loved by many and always carried a smile. He graduated from Belgrade High School in 1981, as second in his class. After graduation he joined the Air force working in the avionics department for six and a half years. During this time Leo Craig met and fell deeply in love with Yvette Zahara. Following their marriage their first bundle of joy is their daughter Melissa Zahara in 1989. Four years later their second bundle of joy entered the world, their son Craig James Zahara in 1993. They spent many loving years together as a family.

Fishing, golf and most outdoor activities is how Leo Craig liked to spend his time. Laughing with friends and spending time at family events was how Leo Craig enjoyed his days off. He was an excellent manager for the company Printing for Less at the time of his death. Previous to this he was also a great manager for the company Simms. He spoke highly of his co-workers and the companies where he pursued his career.

There is also a memorial fund at the First Security Bank called the Leo Z. Fund; at this time they are accepting donations from the public for the benefit of his children.

He is loved and missed by many. Leo Craig will forever be in all our hearts, may he rest in peace.
