

Ronald Claire Cain passed away October 25, at Madison Valley Manor in Ennis, Montana from complications of a recent stroke. He was born April 25, 1947 in Bozeman, Montana to Clair and Mary (VanSpyk) Cain.

He went to school in Bozeman, graduating in 1966. He then joined the Army where he served as a gunner on a helicopter in Viet Nam. After returning home, he married Sue Dean in 1972. They had one daughter, Debra. They were later divorced.

Ron worked many jobs around Bozeman before moving to Idaho where he worked in a grain elevator for fifteen years. He moved back to Bozeman in 1992. He worked at MSU as a custodian where he met many of his good friends. Ron had a stroke in 1995 and was no longer able to work. He has lived in Belgrade for the past ten years. He loved to hunt and fish and spend time with his grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, his parents, his mother-in-law and sister-in-law.

Ron is survived by his daughter, Debra (Aaron) Fenton of Whitefish, MT; three grandchildren, Jake, Ashley and Sarah; one brother, Richard (Penny) Cain of Bozeman; two sisters, Barb (Watt) Wood and Karen (LeRoy) Arneson of Belgrade. He is also survived by many nieces, nephews and cousins in Montana and Idaho.

We love you and will miss your smile and all those blonde jokes.

Memorial services will be held at 11 a.m. Monday, October 29, 2007 at the Church of Christ in Belgrade. Memorials may be made to the Madison Valley Manor, Ennis MT. or to the Church of Christ, 909 Nevada, Belgrade, MT 59714. Arrangements are in the care of Dokken-Nelson Funeral Service.
