

Eileen Eleanor Jones was born to Frank and Pauline (Wombold) Cibulski on a ranch in Wagner, Montana on January 20, 1931. She lost her father at the young age of 2 ½. At this point, she and her two surviving sisters, Dorothy and Audrey went to live with their grandparents, Jacob and Katherine Wombold, and her Uncle Johnny and Aunt Helen Wombold. She left for nursing school at the young age of 17 in Bozeman, Montana.

While a student nurse, she became one of George Reynold Jones' attending nurses. George lost his wife, Agnes (Kelly) Jones in a car accident but was left with two children, Kelly (deceased 1980) and Terrie Ann. Eileen and George fell in love during the ensuing months after the accident. They were married on January 2, 1952 and lived for their first years on Annette Island in Alaska, where George worked for the FAA and Eileen worked as an RN.

Eileen and George retired to Elk, Washington in 1979 with the three youngest children. George passed away in 1981. Eileen remained in Elk for her remaining years. She remained a faithful member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Mom will be greatly missed. She was so full of life as we grew up with her. She will be remembered for riding a motorcycle cross country, breaking her leg while skiing. Becoming an ambulance driver, and making the best Cowboy Coffee Cake and Choke Cherry Syrup this side of heaven.

Eileen lost her fight to colon cancer on October 8, 2009. She is survived by Terrie Ann Gunderson (Wayne), Reynold Jones, Lance Jones (Vonníe), Natalie Millar (Wayne), Melody Jones (Lee), Wade Jones, Faith Schultz (Dale), and Leslie Jones. She will be greatly missed by her children, and 67 grand and great-grand children.
