

The Lord called Agnes Kamps to her eternal home on October 24, 2008 at Bozeman Deaconess Hospital. She was the daughter of Bert and Gezina (VanderWoude) Kamerman, born October 1, 1922 in Manhattan, Montana.

Agnes lived her entire life in the Gallatin Valley. She graduated from Manhattan High School in 1940.

She married Louis J. Kamps in Churchill on March 1, 1946. They lived on the Kamps ranch northwest of Gallatin Gateway until Louis passed away. Shortly after this, she moved to the Churchill Retirement Home on Churchill. She and Louis were charter members of Bethel Christian Reformed Church. She was an active member of Bethel

Church; the Afternoon Ladies Bible Study, and an instructor of Crossroad Bible Studies.

Agnes is survived by her children, John (Thelma) Kamps of Salida, CA; Gloria (Carl) Zylstra of Sioux Center, IA; Gilbert (Janice) Kamps of St. Charles, MO; Eleanor (Dale) DeVries of Grand Rapids, MI; Sharon (Eugene) Koorn of Oak Harbor, WA; and Louis (Cindy) Kamps of Bozeman, MT; fourteen grandchildren and fourteen great-grandchildren. She is also survived by a brother, Clarence "Chip" Kamerman.

Preceding her in death were her husband, Louis; granddaughter, Sandra DeVries; her parents; brothers, Harold, John, Bert, and Henry; and sisters, Nellie Kamerman and Sena Poelman. What a joy to be with them all in glory with our Savior!
