

Kathy Estelle Kesterson of Bozeman passed away on Nov. 19, 2008. She was born Aug. 23, 1957, in Fayette, W.Va., to James and Lora (Critchley) Kesterson. She attended Greenbrier High School.

In 1976 she gave birth to her only daughter, Angela.

Kathy worked as a bookkeeper for Victor Stanley Inc. while living in Dunkirk, Md., and finally Optech USA, when she moved to Bozeman.

Kathy enjoyed spending time with family, especially playing video games with her grandson.

She is survived by her daughter, Angela (Larry) Phillips of Bozeman; and her sister, Della Srygley.

Her sister, Linda Kesterson, and brother, Phillip Kesterson, both preceded her in death, as did her mother and father.
