

In loving memory of Phyllis Sams, wife and companion of 46 years.

Phyllis Violet Sams, 83, passed away October 12, 2008 at her home in Belgrade. She was born February 3, 1925 in Lewistown, Montana to Eric and Violet (Coon) Forsberg.

Phyllis graduated from Fergus Falls High School in Lewistown, Montana. Throughout her life she lived in Lewistown, Helena, St. Paul, Minnesota, and Belgrade, Montana.

She worked as a welder and electrician for Boeing during WWII in Seattle as well as on a Naval ship in either San Francisco or Seattle. Later she worked as an insurance adjustor for Western Life in St. Paul.

Phyllis was an active member in the senior center and enjoyed cooking, gardening, fishing, her pets, family, and friends.

She is survived by her husband, Everett, of Belgrade; nieces, Gail Forsberg of Bozeman; Karin Olson of California; Nancy Herndon of Oklahoma; nephew Carl (Pat) Olsson of Boise; great-niece Cody (Schoessler) Wormgoor; and great nephew, Jeremy Schoessler.

Phyllis is preceded in death by her mother and father, Eric and Violet Forsberg; her brother, Eric Forsberg; sister, Doris (Forsberg) Olsson, and niece, Annette (Forsberg) Schoessler.