

Rhoda Jane Munsch, 68, of Belgrade passed away November 14, 2008. She was born January 28, 1940 in St. Paul, Minnesota to Eugene John and Irene (Benson) Huelskamp.

Rhoda graduated from St. Mary's Central High School in Bismark, North Dakota in 1958. She completed Nurses Aide Training and Secretarial School.

Places lived were New Ulm, Minnesota; Bismark, North Dakota; Paradise, Montana where she enjoyed the mountains in her backyard; and in Belgrade, Montana.

She married Leon Errol Munsch on May 2, 1964 in Bismark, North Dakota.

Through the years she worked as a Nurses Aide, Home Care Provider, Child Care Giver, Cook, Waitress, Bar Tender, IBM Key Punch Operator, and Homemaker. She enjoyed quilting, sewing, ceramics, cooking, and crafts. She was forever helping the less fortunate.

She was preceded in death by her parents and sister, Dee Boltz.

Rhoda is survived by here husband, Leon; children, Tim (Jayne) Zacher, Ada, MN; Bruce (Zara) Munsch, Missoula, MT; Jane (Terry) Degen, Belgrade, MT; Errol (Jami) Munsch, Wichita, KS; and Damon Munsch, Livingston MT. She is also survived by thirteen grandchildren, 4.95 great-grandchildren; and her sister, Susan Flory, Plains, MT.

No services are planned at this time.