

M arvin Raymond Walden passed away Nov. 12, 2009. He was born June 27, 1919, in New York City to Irwin and Clara Waldstein.

He was a graduate of Columbia Law School and was a lawyer, professional risk manager and consultant.

He was a father to Chip, George, Jon and Ronald; grandfather of Kasey, Sami, Jared and Cara; and forever husband and life friend of Elise

To all who knew him, cared for him or loved him, he was demanding, at times infuriating, but always fair and honest to a fault. He made his own rules and traveled his road. We will always remember the good days; how he helped us, guided us, protected us and gave meaning to our lives. This was his time. We pray that he found true meaning and love in his life.

Rest in peace, Marvin. We love you, we will miss you, and we can never forget you. And though the twinkle has left your eye, it will always be a beacon that lights the road we continue to travel.
