

Lloyd "Dale" Badgley passed away Monday, Dec. 17, 2007, in Jackson, California at the age of 89. Dale was born October 14, 1918, to William and Harriet (Norman) Badgley in Roundup, Montana.

On November 23, 1953, Dale married the love of his life, Orphia Johnson, In Oakland, California. Dale and Orphia have made Amador County their home for the past 32 years.

Dale was a very adventurous man who loved to travel anywhere. He and some friends pioneered the ARTS transportation service for Amador County; it was his job to design the driving routes. Dale was also a proud member of the Henry Clay Masonic Lodge. His family describes him as a fun loving man who never lost his sense of humor.

Dale is survived by his adoring wife of 54 years, Orphia of Sutter Creek, California; siblings, Beth Badgley of Palo Alto, Calif., Bill & Carol Badgley of Dayton Wyoming., Roberta and Bill Wachsmuth of Mt. View, California and several nieces and nephews.
