

Denny was born on July 2, 1940 in Seattle, WA. He grew up in the Queen Anne neighborhood and attended Queen Anne Lutheran Church with a tightly knit community of family and lifelong friends. After graduating from Queen Anne High School, Denny began his career in electronics sales in the family business, Westlake Electronic Supply, where with his father, Chet, older brother Ron, and subsequently his nephews Rob and Matt Granard, he helped the business grow into the successful venture it is today.

In 1965 he fell in love with Kathy Grubb, whom he had known since childhood. They were soon married and had two children, Shelley and Paul. They spent many happy years living in Edmonds and were very active in their church, North Seattle Alliance.

In 2003, Denny went into partial retirement and pursued a lifelong dream of moving to the great state of Montana. He and Kathy settled in Bozeman and built a beautiful home where they made many new friends in the community and at Bozeman Alliance Church. They enjoyed all that Big Sky Country had to offer, spending their time hunting, fishing, hiking, entertaining visitors and exploring the area.

When his beloved Kathy became ill with leukemia, he faithfully cared for her and bravely faced life without her when she went to be with the Lord last January. Among Denny's many gifts: he had a wonderful sense of humor and loved to tell a funny story; he was a caring family man and friend who always provided both encouragement and wise council to his family and friends whenever they needed it; both in business and in his personal life, Denny always took the time to smile and chat with everyone he met, making friends wherever he went; and finally, through prayer he daily demonstrated his faithfulness in God as well as his lifelong love of learning and study—when he was called to the Lord, Denny was sitting at the table, pen in hand, working on his bible study questions.

A memorial service followed by a time of fellowship will be held at North Seattle Alliance Church from 2–4 pm on Monday February 23rd. In lieu of flowers, please make a donation to your favorite charity.
