

Scott Alan Roberts, 47, of Belgrade passed away unexpectedly at his home early Sunday, January 10, 2010. He was born August 18, 1962 at St. John's Hospital in Libby, Montana, to Lawrence H. and Beverly A. (Kershner) Roberts.

Scott attended schools in Helena, Montana and graduated from Capital High School in 1980. He served in the U.S. Navy for ten years as an aviation electronics technician. He had a passion for photography and enjoyed the technology of computers. He had a quick and dry sense of humor and loved being with family and friends. He was a member of the Church of Christ in Belgrade and was involved in their Bible studies. He loved the outdoors and took every opportunity to go hiking, downhill skiing, fishing, and the pursuit of his hobby of photography.

After his tour of duty, he moved to Helena and started his employment for Sweetheart Bread Co. as a relief driver, and eventually became a fulltime driver in Malta, Montana. He spent three years in Malta, and then accepted a transfer to Bozeman, Montana. His most recent employment was a driver for Meadow Gold Distributors in Bozeman. He was a member of Teamster Local Union.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Guy E. and Bernice (Huston) Kershner; and Oliver H. and Grace L. (Mason) Roberts; his aunts, Lois (Kershner) Shinkle, Phyllis (Kershner) Baker, and Lorraine Roberts.

Scott is survived by his parents of East Helena, Montana; brother, Gary L Roberts and partner, Donn Porter, of Seattle; sister, Lisa A. (James) Traver and niece, Melia E. Traver, of Kenmore, Washington; uncle and aunt Daniel E. and Joan Kershner of Florence, Arizona; uncle, Fred Shinkle of Spanaway, Washington, and numerous cousins.

Memorial Services will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday, January 16 at the Church of Christ, 909 Nevada St. Belgrade, Montana. Cremation has taken place and interment of cremains will be in Sunset Memorial Park, Belgrade, Montana. Should friends desire, memorials may be made to the Disabled American Veterans, Building 141, Room 108, Fort Harrison, MT 59636; or to a charity of choice.
