

Tonya was born in Brunswick, Georgia, on June 26, 1962, to William Alexander and Cora Edwina (Jacobs) Clark.

She was one of four children.

She spent most of her childhood in Brunswick, and went to high school at Wheeler Highschool in Marietta, GA.

She was very active in Airforce ROTC through out her high school years.

She went to University of Georgia for political science through her junior year, and then moved back to Brunswick.

While working at Rich Seapack Corporation she met the love of her life, Charles Scanlan, whom she later married on January 31, 1982 in Darien, Georgia. Following a honeymoon in Florida, they spent 27 loving years together. They moved from Georgia to Gallatin Gateway, Montana in 1998.

She worked in Big Sky for Boyne Corporation for 12 years as an Executive House-keeper amongst other responsibilities. She enjoyed her job and her coworkers.

She loved walking the dogs, Kelly and James; fishing and sailing her remote control boats.

She also was a huge football fan, her favorite team being the Georgia Bulldogs and any team Brett Favre played for. She loved professional bull riding, and her ambition was to raise bucking bulls. She thoroughly enjoyed spending time with family and friends.

Her husband, Chuck, will always be grateful to her for saving his life, for continually being there and loving him throughout their marriage..

She was preceded in death by her parents and her sister.

She is survived by her brothers Billy and Marty Clark of Georgia, her husband Charles "Chuck" Scanlan of Gallatin Gateway, Montana, several cousins, and her son Michael (Whitney) Lauria, and one grandchild, Dennis, of Bozeman, Montana.

Tonya passed away on January 15, 2010, after a short, but courageous battle with ovarian cancer.
