

Nancy Ann Chesley, 75, passed away February 10, 2010. She was born on a small farm south of Belgrade, Montana on October 3, 1934, to Jesse and Bessie (Hallford) Roth. She grew up on the family farm where she married Seth "Bud" Chesley on January 1, 1955.

Nancy lived her entire life in the house in which she was born and where she was married, until she and Bud moved west of Belgrade in November 2009. She was educated in the Belgrade schools. Nan loved children and worked many years providing childcare. Her final working years were spent as a cook at the Belgrade Senior Center. She retired in 1988 due to health problems. Nan passed away peacefully with her family at her side. She was preceded in death by her father, Jesse, in 1948; her mother, Bessie, in 2002; and her brother, Jim, in 1998.

She is survived by her husband, Bud; daughter, Sarah (Robert) Hulbert; son, Dan (Jonnie) Chesley; sister-in-law, Nancy Roth; three grandchildren, Jennifer, Dustin, and Amanda; nine great-grandchildren, Victoria, Wyatt, Blaine, Zane, Marshall, Destiny, Naomi, Sierra, and Lily.

Please join us in remembering Nan. Graveside services will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday, February 13 in Sunset Hills Cemetery. A reception will be held at the Dan Chesley residence, Cobblestone subdivision, 198 Ruby Lane, Belgrade, following the graveside service. Memorials in her name may be made to a charity of the donor's choice.
