

Albert Lee Wiersema, Jr., 28, passed away on Saturday, February 7, 2009 in Havre. He was born on December 16, 1980 in Bozeman to Albert and Debra (Cramer) Wiersema. He grew up and attended school in Manhattan, graduating from Manhattan High School in 1999.

Albert worked at a number of different jobs but carpentry was his passion. He was very proud of his skill as a carpenter and the things he was able to build.

Albert loved the Lord and enjoyed His creation. He enjoyed spending time outdoors whether for work or play. In the last couple of years he became passionate about hunting, getting his first elk last year.

Albert was a man with a big heart; he would give the shirt off his back for family and friends. He never left a room without giving you a big hug and saying "I love you." He had an amazing love for his nieces and nephews and he always looked forward to a round of golf with his beloved father and friend.

He is survived by his parents, Albert and Debra Wiersema; sisters, Denise (Mark) Bausch; Carisa Wiersema; Kim (Earl) Jolliff; nieces and nephews, Kaleb and Megan Bausch, Cole and Riley Jolliff, and Tyler Plum as well as numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and dear friends.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Al and Anjean Wiersema; Tom and Jean Cramer and two uncles, Art VanderVliet and Bob Cramer.

Funeral services will be held at 10 am Saturday at the Manhattan Christian Reformed Church on Churchill. Interment will follow in Churchill Cemetery. Visitation hours at Dokken-Nelson Funeral Service will be from 9 am to 8 pm Friday. Should friends desire, memorials in Albert's name may be made to Eagle Mount, 6901 Goldenstein Lane,
