

Rose Arlotti was born in Hiawatha, Utah October 24, 1915, to John and Antoinette Laratta. She died Wednesday, September 15, with her family by her side. California was her home before moving to Bozeman MT. Rose was a beautiful person who gave 100% to everything in life. She loved her family with total commitment. She lived her whole life a totally unselfish daughter, sister, wife, aunt, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. Just to know her was to know her generosity. Her marvelous sense of humor was with her until the end. Never did anyone hear a word of complaint from her. She was always concerned about keeping up everyone's spirits.

Her gift to everyone who knew her was her exceptional example of loving life and loving those around her. The joy of giving was her guideline for a happy life. Those of us, who were fortunate enough to have known Rose, have truly been blessed watching her step through life in such a totally unselfish manner. She is survived by a grateful family who hopes to pass on her loving qualities.

Rose is survived by her daughters, Joanna Charleton (Keith Poston) and Annette (Gary) Eberhard; son, John (Brenda) Arlotti; sister, Antoninette Condeff and brother, Jay Laratta. Her grandchildren, Michael (Suzanne) Eberhard, Jim Eberhard (Linda Cencer), John (Carrie) Eberhard, Jeff (Julie) Arlotti, Andrea (Paul) Duglosch, Mary Lynn (Rob) Vollmer, Cindy (Steve) Collins, Michael John (Lisa) Charleton and Lisa (Dan) Curtis, and great grandchildren, Jake Arlotti, John Gil Arlotti, Callahan Charleton, Jessie Curtis, Ellery Charleton, Emmie Rose Duglosch, Summer Brewer Eberhard, Tiffany Brewer Eberhard also survive.

A Funeral Mass will be held at 10:30 am September 28th at Calvary Cemetery in Los Angeles with entombment in the mausoleum to follow. Should friends desire, memorials may be made to the charity of the donor's choice.
