

Robert Leonard Bradley, Sr., 80, a Bozeman native, passed away on March 13, 2010, at Bozeman Health and Rehab Center. He was born on December 27, 1929, in Bozeman, to James and Florence Nixon Bradley. He grew up on the family farm on South Gooch Hill Road and attended Rea School and Gallatin High School.

After graduation, Robert married Alice Akens in August of 1950 in Bozeman. They had three children; Robert, Jr., David, and Lori. They later divorced and in October of 1969, Robert married Myrtle Swanson in Bozeman. Together they raised Marilyn and had a son, Michael. Robert was a diesel mechanic and an over the road truck driver. In the 1970's, Robert and his brother, Curt, formed Bradley Brothers Trucking and Bradley Repair in Belgrade.

Robert enjoyed building and racing his Jeep. He was a member of the Bozeman Mountaineers Club and the Montana 4 x 4 Association.

Robert was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Myrtle; his brother, Curt; and his sister-in-law, Susan.

He is survived by sons, Robert (Fran) Bradley, Jr., David Bradley, and Michael Bradley, daughter, Lori McAllister; step-daughter, Marilyn (Ed) Cox; brothers, Raymond (Betty) Bradley, and Paul Bradley; sister-in-law, Betty Bradley; six grandchildren, Jeff Bradley, James Bradley, Johnny Cox, Aubrey Bradley, Deb Hawe, and Alan Aznoe; eight great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

A special thank you to Dr. Harris, his nurse, Barb, and the staff at Bozeman Health and Rehab.

Donations may be made in Robert's name to the charity of your choice.
