

Judy Lynn Johnson, 60, of Bozeman, passed away June 14, 2010.

She was born June 1, 1950 in Madison, Wisconsin to Lyle A. and Betty J. (Klotzbuecher) Larson.

Judy graduated from Ganesha High School in Pomona, California in 1968, and from Humboldt State University in 1972, followed by a Master's degree in Library Science from Cal State Fullerton.

She married Stanley K. Johnson on May 30, 1981, in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Over the years, she was employed by AlpenLite Products, Ventura, California; Patagonia, Inc., also in Ventura, and in Bozeman, Montana; and Simms Fishing Products in Bozeman.

She enjoyed reading, quilting, cross country skiing, cycling, cooking, traveling, sewing, gardening, and various outdoor activities.

Judy was well-loved and had many friends, both at work and in the community.

She was preceded in death by her father, Lyle A. Larson and by her sister, Jeri Lee Larson.

Judy is survived by her husband, Stan; her mother, Betty Larson; sister, Jackie Lou White; and nephew, Samuel Lyle White.

A celebration of Judy's life will be held Saturday, June 19. Email sjohnson825@msn.com or lbacon@pbsj.com for time and location.

Donations may be made to the Judy Johnson Tree Memorial Fund at American Bank, P.O. Box 1970, Bozeman, MT 59771-1970.