

Anne Sinnema

1923 ~ 2010

Anne Sinnema, 87, of Churchill went home to be with the Lord on November 1, 2010. Anne was born to Henry & Jennie (DeBoer) Ligtenberg in Corsica, South Dakota. As a young girl she moved with her family to Montana.

She married Norman F. Sinnema on October 10, 1945. They had five children.

Mom was a member of the Manhattan Christian Reformed Church. Her unfaltering faith in Jesus Christ as her Saviour is a great testimony to her family. She loved watching her grandchildren and great-grandchildren devour her homemade cookies after church on Sunday mornings.

Mom enjoyed traveling with friends, reading, and doing handiwork. Each grandchild and great-grandchild received a crocheted afghan. She had the heart of a servant and she will be missed.

Anne was preceded in death by her parents, Henry and Jennie Ligtenberg; brother, Freddy; and grandson, Joe Alberda.

She is survived by two brothers, Lloyd (Pat) Ligtenberg and Ken (Eloise) Ligtenberg; sister, Darlene (Andrew) Moss; children, Lois (Jim) Bos, Norma (Jon) Alberda, Carol (Jay) Vermulm, Frank (Doris) Sinnema, and Ron (Lynne) Sinnema; thirteen grandchildren; and eighteen great-grandchildren.

Should friends desire, memorials may be made to Manhattan Christian School, 8000 Churchill Road, Manhattan, MT 59741.
