

G erald "Pete" White came to visit Montana in the 1970's and fell in love with the mountains and prairies. He passed away October 24, 2010 in Bozeman, having lived in the area for almost three decades.

Pete was born September 5, 1916 in Armstrong County, Pennsylvania on the family farm. He was one of six children born to Edgar A. and Molly Parrott White. He worked in the natural gas business most of his life.

In his early years, Pete played baseball with local teams. He loved to attend Pittsburgh Pirate games and knew most of the major league players. Fishing and hunting were other passions. He spent countless hours with his relatives and friends on Pennsylvania streams and Montana rivers, the Madison being one of his favorite. He also loved to hunt birds and big game in the beautiful forests of both states.

He is survived by three daughters, Lois White of Elmira, NY, Phyllis White (William Madden, Jr) of Bozeman, and Janice Shoemaker of Vernal, UT, as well as grandchildren, Catherine, Elizabeth, David, Erika, Meghan and Bradley. He has 7 great-grandchildren. He is also survived by his brother, Raymond of Kittanning, PA and numerous nephews and nieces.

